"Once I Was Blind Now I Can See"

This quotation from a popular hymn covers many statements made to us by coal users this season.

Formerly Blind to their own interests as to what Coals they could use profitably. Now Seeing, partly through necessity and our constant urging, that high grade Bituminous Coal and small sizes of Anthracite Coal, when used intelligently, can give satisfactory service and save them money.

Our orders for these Coals are increasing every day and in our opinion the use of them will be a favorable factor in controlling Anthracite Coal prices in the future. Order some now.

KING NOT IN DANGER

And Greece Not So Bad As Recent Ghastly Events Might Indicate.

Paris, Dec. 9.—Prince Andrew of Greece is quoted by the Paris Herald as saying that the charges of disobedience of orders preferred against him in his recent trial are unfounded. "I was under no orders," he told the newspaper. The prince added that he was treated with much courtesy during his trial.

"Greece to-day is neither bolshevik revolutionary, nor republican as the recent ghastly events in Athens might lead the world to believe," the prince said. "I do not consider that the king is in danger although his position is a difficult one."

Queen Mother Olga of Greece, who had planned to sail for the United States next Wednesday with Prince Christopher and his wife, the former Mrs. William B. Leeds, has decided instead to accompany Prince Andrew to London.

MONTPELIER SEMINARY.

Norman Bone and Leon Harding Apportioned to Annapolis.

United States Senator Carroll S. Page has notified Norman Bone and Leon Harding, both students at Montpelier seminary, of their appointment to the United States Naval academy at Annapolis. Mr. Bone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bone of South Rye, and Mr. Harding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Harding of Ver-shire. These appointments have come as the result of the competitive examination recently held at Norwich university. The young men are being warmly congratulated by their fellow students and friends.

Rev. Charles N. St. John gave a most helpful address at a joint meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. in the seminary chapel Thursday evening. It was the Christmas meeting and the seminary choir sang Christmas carols. Miss Effie Nelson, president of the Y. W. C. A., presided at the meeting.

A competitive debate will be held in the seminary chapel this evening. Two girls' teams will debate and two boys' teams. From the winners will be chosen the Montpelier seminary debating team.

Coming events are casting their shadows before and the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. are putting a great deal of energy into the preparations for their Christmas bazaar to be held in the seminary chapel on Monday evening, Dec. 11. There will be various booths and a Japanese ten room. During the evening a little play will be presented by students. The public is cordially invited to attend and help the Y. W. and Y. M. organizations.

ALLEGED IMPROPRIETIES.

Of Miss Birkhead Were Testified to In $100,000 Suit.

Oxford, Miss., Dec. 9.—A dozen witnesses in the trial of Miss Frances C. Birkhead's suit for $100,000 damages from Lee M. Russell, governor of Mississippi, remained to be heard to-day.

Testimony yesterday dealt principally with alleged improprieties on the part of Miss Birkhead at a dance near Dover, Miss., during her earlier life; later in Pearsall, Texas, and during recent years in Louisiana and Mississippi; and of threats she is alleged to have made in Jackson in 1920.

Cross-examination of Governor Russell which was concluded at the morning session, consisted almost entirely of repetition of denials of the allegations by Miss Birkhead.
